

Fiber Optic Cable Distribution Network

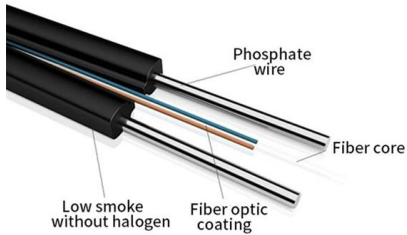

Overview

is used by telecommunications companies to transmit telephone signals, Internet communication and cable television signals.

Fiber Optic Cable Distribution Network

Fiber Distribution Architecture

Connect with the solution that best fits your communications network by leveraging Corning's full portfolio of fiber optic hardware solutions. You'll find an option for any network architecture, anywhere.

Defining ODN: Optical Distribution Network

An Optical Distribution Network (ODN) is a component of modern optical fiber communication systems, serving as the intermediate layer between the central office or data center and the end-user premises.

Fiber-optic communication

Overview Applications Background History Technology Parameters Comparison with electrical transmission Governing standards

Optical fiber is used by telecommunications companies to transmit telephone signals, Internet communication and cable television signals. It is also used in other industries, including medical, defense, government, industrial and commercial. In addition to serving the purposes of telecommunications, it is used as light guides, for imaging tools, lasers, hydrophones for seismic waves, SONAR, and as sensors to measure pressure and temperature.
