

Where are bridge structures used in Palestine

Overview

The bridge is named after the historic village of Jindas, which stood east of the bridge. It is the most famous of the several bridges erected by Sultan Baybars in Palestine, which include the Yibna and the Isdud bridges. OverviewJisr Jindas, for "Jindas Bridge", also known as Baybars Bridge, was built in 1273 CE. The present structure dates to 672/AD 1273, but is believed to be constructed on foundations.
